Miss Kathleen Moore, associate professor of elementary education, has been teaching at Union for 37 years, the longest tenure of any instructor on campus.

Miss Moore a graduate of Mississippi State College for Women, and Columbia University, has also attended Ohio State University and the University of Southern California. She has sent perhaps hundreds of promising teachers into the educational field, and they are, as are many Union students and alumni, grateful for her services.

The "Stespean" honors Miss Kathleen Moore and Dr. Erwin S. Bradley

Dr. Erwin S. Bradley, Chairman of the Division of Social Studies, has devoted 27 years of his educational lifetime teaching students at Union the nuances and complexities of history.

A graduate of Juniata College with a M.A. from the University of Michigan and a Ph.D. from Pennsylvania State University, Dr. Bradley has authored three books: Union College, Triumph of Militant Republicanism, and Simon Cameron: Lincoln's Secretary of War, and two articles in Americana Encyclopedia. A distinguished teacher, scholar and a gentleman, Dr. Bradley will be sorely missed by students equally interested in history.

Miss Union — Anne Reed

Mr. and Miss Union are elected annually by the entire student population. The awards are given to the seniors who have best served Union College.

Miss Union, Anne Reed of Bellefontaine, Ohio, has edited the STESPEAN for two years. She is active as President of Gamma Beta Phi, vice-president of Sigma Tau Delta, and secretary of Beta Chi Alpha. She was secretary and alumni advisor of CWENS, and is also a member of the Student Senate.

She has been the Union College Pep Queen, Stevenson Hall Dorm Queen and Lakeside Queen. Her biography has appeared in "National Student Register", "Who's Who Among American Student Leaders", and "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges".

Mr. Union Bob Brooks

Bob Brooks of Dover, Delaware was named Mr. Union for 1973-74. He has been active in student senate and student center board for four years. As a junior and senior he served on the Orientation committee, and spent one year on the Admissions committee. He was the recipient of the Sampson Political Science Award last year.

Bob is a social work and political science major and participated in the Washington, D.C. semester working in the political field.

Mayme Wallace 1973 Homecoming Queen

Amidst tears, smiles, and embraces, Mayme Wallace of Barbourville was crowned the 1973 Union College Homecoming Queen at the Spring Cabaret Show in April. She was escorted by Ken Moore.

Mayme, a senior home economics major is active on the student senate and student center board. She is also a member of the Girl's Service Sorority.

The Drama department's production of the musical extravaganza "Once Upon A Mattress" turned out to be the most successful presentation ever staged at Union College. The twenty-three member cast, costumed in a variety of colorful, Medievel apparel, performed before capacity crowds every night.

The cast, under the direction of Mrs. Patricia Dontchos, dramatized the comical tale of the swamp princess who faced a scheming prospective mother-in-law and her pea. The lilting musical score and choreography made the comedy a delightful production.

Wilson turns the corner on Thomas More.

Grobmyer faces an anxious defender.

The Bulldogs of 1973-74! "You win some; you lose some."

History may yet smile on the 1973-74 edition of Union College basketball. They faced a grueling schedule which Pete Moore would have done well to abandon like an unwanted child on the doorstep of an opposing coach. But like the men they were, molded into a respectable unit over months of practice and battles on the court, they chose to play, win or lose.

And that's what the game is all about. Winning; that great element of every sport which coaches, players, and fans all thrive for, only becomes meaningful when it is tasted with defeat. Union's basketball team showed us the plausible reality of defeat. Some exciting ballgames, at that.

The late Harry S Truman requested before his death that of all the eulogistic phrases to be inscribed on his epitaph, he preferred the one that reads, "He Did His Damndest."

History may yet smile on this year's team. They did their damndest.

Jim Dare exhibits good triple-jumping form.

Track and Field

The 1972-73 edition of Union College's track and field team was one of the most successful and exciting in the school's history. Head Coach Dan Davis assembled an outstanding group of athletes and produced a unit respected both in the KIAC and by other opposing colleges.

Rick Hanson eases into a shot-put attempt.

Union College Tennis Team

Although team victories were sparse, the Union College tennis squad of 1972-73 left a memorable impression on the courts. It produced the first female athlete to participate in intercollegiate athletics at Union. And along with some outstanding individual performances, the team competed consistently for KIAC honors.

Ray Spahn prepares for a quick start.

Union College Swim Team

The Union College Bullfrogs faced another year of futility with their usual dosage of guts and determination. Forced to face swimming giants such as Centre, Morehead State and West Virginia Tech, with a seven-man squad, the Bullfrogs often come up on the losing side. But they performed like professionals in the truest sense of the word, accumulating perhaps more practice hours than any other varisty squad.

Pete McNall takes the plung.

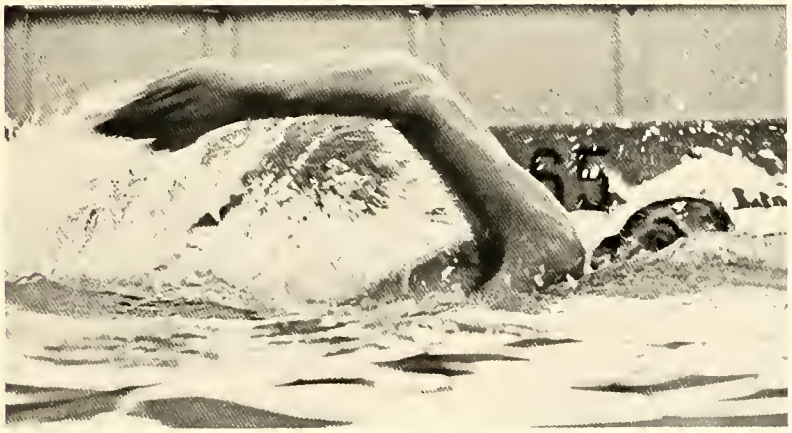
Badorf breezes in the backstroke.



Jim Marvin, a consistant scorer, races in the freestyle.

Freshman diver Mike Smith cooly faces the competition.

Larry Presley found himself up and down.

Valentine and Miller rush at will.

Chuck Bollinger chases Billy Swafford.

Steve Jeffers scrambles for tough yardage in the championship game.

Knox County Claims Intramural Championship

Knox County once again, dominated intramural football, but not without some stiff competition from Stevenson Hall, the Off-Campus No-Names, and Lakeside's two squads.

In winning their third straight title, Knox County demonstrated skills not only individually, but also as a team destined for success.

Robb Hall meets a Stevenson welcoming committee.

Union College Golf Team

The Union College golf team headed into spring competition armed with a strong field of candidates hoping to capture KIAC and NAIA District 24 honors. A group of seasoned veterans, led by Sean Cavanaugh, the team's number one player, and some promising newcomers concentrated on returning Union to prominence in collegiate golf.

Cavanaugh follows through on a drive.

Becky Reed powers a serve.

Girls' Volleyball Team

The girl's intercollegiate volleyball team, organized for the second consistent year under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Hacker, faced action against only one team this season. But what the squad lacked in playing time, they make up for in enthusiasm. Several members of the team participate in additional athletic activities, and their dedication to helping make Union a true competitor in women's sports is highly commendable.

Union College Cheerleaders

The Union College cheerleading squad, sporting new orange and black uniforms, added a vivacious touch at every home basketball game. Enlarging their ranks to eight, and adding a male member, the cheerleaders succeeded in keeping the student body spirit alive though the Bulldogs suffered a losing 1973 season.

Barbourville All-Stars vs All-American Red Heads

The Union College gymnasium was the center of pandemonium when the All-American Red Heads appeared to compete against the Barbourville All-Stars on December 3, 1973. The internationally-famous all-girl team was brought to Union by Mu Omega Beta.

The "weaker" sex emerged victorious in the basketball battle of the sexes. Their local opposition consisted primarily of Union College faculty members who sought to test their talents on the hardwood. They discovered instead that the classroom life was a safer and more viable pastime.
